Reflections about the Christchurch Earthquake

I feel so sorry for Christchurch and worried and sad about Christchurch's history and buildings. I'm sad for the people who got crushed and the people who are injured and the people who had their arms and legs amputated. And I thank the people who are doing their best to help Christchurch and the people who are donating money.

Danielle Knox
Year 6

If I were in Christchurch, I would be sad, scared and petrified. No-one should go through something like that. The people in Christchurch must be scared to the core. How do you live through something like that?
