Kowhai Team Reaches Out for Christchurch

Friday 1st April was the first ever Colwill Garage Sale. Everyone was excited and nervous at the same time.

Before everyone came in, we went to our stands. As soon as we got to them – it was a madhouse, chaos, a stampede! Everyone was rushing in for the good bargains but our table was pretty empty.

During the sale, it was slow business until an announcement that everything was reduced to $1.00! One minute there were heaps of clothes and the next – none.

We made a lot of money-over $1000!!

On Thursday, I received a notice. The notice said “On Friday 1st April – April Fool’s Day - it is Kowhai’s Garage Sale. Don’t forget to bring the stuff you don’t want.”

One day went by and it was Friday, garage sale time. At 2.30 p.m. we went to the Hall. We were put into groups for selling. We got changed into our yellow kowhai t-shirts.

Before we started we had two minutes to buy something. I bought some beautiful invitations for my birthday party and a beautiful diary. Straight after that, we got behind the tables and started selling.

After all my hard work, I needed a drink. I felt tired but happy because we raised over $1000 for Christchurch, which is AMAZING!! I hope that they can rebuild their lives and live happily and not worry about more earthquakes.
