Room 20: Year 2/3: Sophisticated Book Study The Twits by Roald Dahl

This term Room 20 have been studying Roald Dahl's book, "The Twits" - we have had a huge focus on his wonderfully descriptive language.

The following are excerpts from their story writing.

Mr and Mrs Twit were an evil old couple. Mr Twit had an ugly face and a spiky beard. Mrs Twit had a watching glass eye and a whacking walking stick. They were always playing mean tricks on each other because they were such nasty people.

Mr and Mrs Twit were a dirty old couple. Mr Twit had an hairy face and a dirty beard. Mrs Twit had a watching glass eye and an old walking stick. They were always playing naughty tricks on each other because they were always mean people. They lived in a dirty house with a prickly garden. In the garden next to Mr Twit's old work shed here was an ugly cage. In this cage, there lived a sad family of monkeys.
